

You say one day quite magically your eye was gone
And now you're seeing marvelous blackness, what's going on?
Well let me tell you who created that flash of light
The one and only surviving purple, I'm the guy
Body dissolving into nothing from a silly breach
I cried and wailed, desperately despaired but no one heard me
And in that time I did what I handy dared to do before
I made a wish and came back!
But I was mostly gone
(He was a head)
How delightfully wrong!
(He screamed and said)
What's going on?
And everytime I wish
My brain cells go swish!
So I just kinda...
*haha*
(He's got your eye)
How could you have guessed?
(How mighty sly!)
It lives, I jest!
Arms and feet, drop on the street
At my LIGHT
[That I also stole]
They can't stop me
(They cannot see)
I can't be killed
(I'm just too skilled)
I'll take all their energy
